

Co-option Policy

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 Wootton Parish Council (“the Council”) must give public notice of a casual vacancy as soon as possible in accordance with section 232 of the Local Government Act 1972.
- 1.2 The Clerk shall duly publish ‘a notice of vacancy’ giving 14 working days within which a by-election may be called.
- 1.3 Following expiry of the 14 working days’ notice, West Northamptonshire Council will advise the Council if a by-election is to be held or if the vacancy is to be filled by co-option.
- 1.4 To ensure good decision making, meet its responsibilities under equality legislation and to provide a fair and transparent process, the following procedure has been adopted by the Council.

2.0 The co-option procedure

- 2.1 Where no by-election is called, the Council must meet and fill the vacancy within a reasonable period following expiry of the initial 14-day period. The only exception is where a by-election is not called and the vacancy occurs within 6 months of when the Councillor would retire, then the post may be left vacant.
- 2.2 The Clerk will advertise the vacancy on the Council website, notice boards and social media, inviting eligible candidates to come forward.
- 2.3 Applicants for co-option will be asked to:
 - submit information about themselves and their reasons for applying (on the attached application form)
 - confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor by certifying a copy of the eligibility criteria on the attached application form
 - Attend the parish council meeting when co-option will take place.
- 2.4 An application form received by the Clerk after the end of the 4-week period will not be accepted.
- 2.5 A copy of each applicant’s application form will be circulated by the Clerk to all Councillors, prior to the relevant full Council meeting where the co-option is to be considered. All such documents shall be treated as Private and Confidential.
- 2.6 Candidates who have submitted application forms will be invited to attend the next ordinary meeting of the Council and given the opportunity, if they wish, to address the Council at the meeting for no longer than three minutes in support of their application.
- 2.7 Candidates must attend the meeting to be considered for co-option.
- 2.8 Candidates must be proposed and seconded. The Chairman asks councillors present to propose and second candidates, and a list of those candidates is recorded in alphabetical order. This process must be followed even where the number of candidates is equal to or less than the number of vacancies. Any applications not being nominated and seconded will fail at this point.

2.9 To ensure fairness and prevent any discomfort for candidates, all voting will be conducted by anonymous ballot, so that individual voting preferences remain confidential.

2.10 If the number of candidates is equal to or less than the number of vacancies, then all the vacancies can be filled with a composite vote. Providing all points in 2.3 have been completed in full.

2.11 Where there are more candidates than vacancies, each vacancy is taken in turn, and each councillor present and voting has one vote per vacancy.

2.12 Voting will be in accordance with statutory requirements. This means that a successful candidate must receive an absolute majority of votes to be co-opted. i.e., receive more than 50% of the votes cast.

2.13 If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and should no single candidate receive an absolute majority on the first round of voting, the candidate with the least votes will be eliminated and the remaining candidates voted on again. This process shall be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

2.14 After the vote has been concluded, the Chairman of the meeting will declare the successful candidate(s) duly co-opted to the council.

2.15 The newly co-opted candidate(s) cannot take part in the remaining business on the agenda since they will not have been properly summonsed to attend that meeting. They will be permitted to stay at the meeting as a member of the public.

2.16 They will begin acting as a Councillor from the council's next meeting and must sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office before that meeting.
